Mrs. Prince Dies, Rites Held Monday

Mrs. Lorene Prince, former associate editor and co-owner of the Newton Record, died Saturday in Riley Hospital, Meridian, nine days after her 72nd birthday.

Services were held Monday at 11 a.m. in the chapel of Webb Funeral Home of Newton with Rev. Michael Carlisle of Trinity Episcopal Church officiating, assisted by Rev. Tom Cupit of Newton United Methodist Church. Burial was in the Masonic Cemetery.

Mrs. Prince and her husband, Winner K. Prince, retired from the newspaper in 1972. She had been ill since undergoing surgery in New Orleans last November.

Mrs. Prince was a member of a pioneer Newton County family. She was born Jan. 19, 1906, in Union, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Mabry of Newton.

She was a charter member of Mississippi Press Women in which she had won numerous editorial and other writing awards in statewide competition.

A founding member of the Trinity Episcopal Church, she had served two terms as president of the Women of the Church. She was an accomplished musician, had occasionally served as organist for church functions and served as leader of Bible studies and other activities. She had also served as a church youth leader and Sunday school teacher.

She attended Whitworth College in Brookhaven and graduated from Millsaps College in Jackson. She taught English in high schools in Mississippi before she married and moved to Newton.

Mrs. Prince was a leader in the Newton Culture Club, Hospital Auxiliary and League of Women Voters. She had been a member of the Newton Public Library board since the 1930s.

Mrs. Prince is survived by her husband, Winner K. Prince; one son, Kent Prince, news editor of the New Orleans Associated Press Bureau; one grandson, Cliff, New Orleans; two sisters, Miss Annie Rose Mabry, longtime writer for the Newton Record, and Mrs. Willa McClenahan, both of Newton; and one brother, Wilmer C. Mabry, Gulfport.
